Fountainhead Brewing Company's Grand Opening a Huge Success

By Greg Brown

Fountainhead Brewing Company on 24th Street in Hollywood Park had its grand opening on April 1st. It was a smashing success, no foolin'.

The new brewery on the block was packed with thirsty patrons tipping back a pint or two, munching on award winning grub from Sparta-Que, and listening to the sweet blues sounds of The Noize Club. There was also lots of action at the ping pong table, while other folks played a few rounds of cornhole.

Fountainhead brewer Daniel Moffat watched all the action unfold and told me, "I'm excited, I can't believe it!"

There was definitely a lot of excitement in the air about a new community gathering spot in the Hollywood Park neighborhood. Hollywood Park resident Chris Knepp was downing a pint of the HP IPA when he told me, "I'm glad to see something on the other side of the track."

A lot of residents from Hollywood Park were enjoying themselves at the grand opening including 93 year old Katie Bord. She's lived in Hollywood Park since 1950. Katie was enjoying the River King porter when I asked her what she thought of the new brewery on the block. "It's great! I think it's wonderful to have a new place in the neighborhood." Perhaps Katie will become a Fountainhead

Rob Whitlock of Hollywood Park showed up with his wife and two kids. The family was gathered at an inside table when Rob said to his wife, "That red is pretty good, huh?" Whitlock was pairing a street taco with the Panama Red, a salute to Panama Pottery a couple doors down.

Not everybody was from the Hollywood Park neighborhood. Tom McElheney of Curtis Park saw the Fountainhead sign on his way home from work and made a quick u-turn to check out all the hullabaloo. He said, "Today's brewers know what we want; flavorful handmade beer". Then he raised his pint of porter as a salute.

Kelly Thigpen, a Brentwood resident, told me "I kept driving by the building... watching... waiting. I'm very excited to have a local establishment I can ride my bike to".

There were lots of bikes chained up to the metal gates at the entrance to the brewery.

Fountainhead definitely has a neighborhood gathering feel to it. The vibe is similar to the brewery on the other side of the tracks, Track 7. And like Track 7, these guys know how to brew quality craft beer.

Hollywood Park's Garden Light: Val Anderson

November 2, 1935 - March 18, 2016

Dear Neighbors,

If you have ever been to any of our many neighborhood events, you most certainly crossed paths with Valerie Jeanne Anderson. It is with a heavy heart I share that Val died on Friday, March 18, 2016, just two days after attending our last HPNA general meeting. Val was a tiny lady with a soft voice but she had a giant smile and a gigantic personality to match. A former President of the HPNA, Val continued to be a tireless advocate for Hollywood Park all the way up until her death.

A master gardener, Val wrote the Garden Light column of this newsletter and hosted the neighborhood plant exchange every year in her incredible garden on Lotus Ave. She regularly attended every neighborhood produce exchange and even continued to attend HPNA board meetings long after leaving the board. In addition to her community-building efforts in Hollywood Park, Val was a fixture of the local blues and jazz scene, attended the Monterey and New Orleans jazz festivals religiously and was a long-time member of the Sacramento Blues Society.

Val often told me that strong neighborhood associations increase the value of real estate. I don't know if she had any empirical evidence of this link but, regardless, I think she was on to something. My wife, Christina, recently told me that even if someone offered us twice what our house is worth we couldn't sell because we'd have to leave our neighbors. She was actually serious. I think Val was really just arguing that strong communities where neighbors care for each other are much harder to leave and much more desirable.

Val was one of those neighbors for whom we would never want to leave and we would have never met her if it hadn't been for the neighborhood association. Although in the end she had to leave us, she also left us with an incredible example of what it truly means to be a neighbor.

I'll miss you Val!

Colin Grant of Natomas actually heard about Fountainhead's grand opening at Track 7 in Curtis Park. He decided to ride his bike over the hill on Sutterville Road and check it out. While the band played "Deep Elem Blues" he told me, "Keep the Grateful Dead going and you've got a good thing".

The guys at Fountainhead Brewing Company definitely have a good thing going on 24th street. It's Hollywood Park's newest watering hole!

Even the dogs came out for the grand opening.

2016 Sacramento Mid-Century Modern Home Tour — June 18th!

The third Sacramento Mid-Century Modern Home Tour, a fundraiser organized by Sacramento Modern, will be on Saturday, June 18th, 2016 from 9AM to 3PM. Tickets, while they last, are $20 for SacMod members and $35 for non-members.

SacMod's tour has expanded into Hollywood Park and Greenhaven for the very first time — in addition to featuring homes in South Land Park and Land Park. Both previous tours (2010 and 2013) sold out and were attended by over a thousand guests.

This year's tour will feature a wide variety of mid-20th century living — highlighting the time period's distinctive architecture, design, and lifestyle. Guests will spend a fun day touring some of Sacramento's best mid-century homes, gardens, and vintage vehicles in authentic Sacramento mid-century neighborhoods. Styles range from minimalist to kitsch, moderns to ranch homes, and everything in between.

The seven tour homes include:

- a rare custom modern home by Sparks and Thaden (1959/1967) in Land Park;
- two Eichler Homes (1955) designed by Jones and Emmons in South Land Park;
- a custom modern home (1967) in Greenhaven;
- a Sierra Builders ranch home (1950) in Hollywood Park;
- a unique custom South Land Park ranch home built by Floyd Cantrell (1959);
- a distinctive ranch/modern home designed by Leo McGlade and Associates (1962) in South Land Park's Weber Estates.

Look for sneak peeks into tour homes in several magazines, including: Sacramento Magazine (May 2016), Inside Publications (June 2016), and Comstock's May 2016 online edition at <http://www.comstocksmag.com/web-only/mad-mod>.

The tour begins at Alice Birney Waldorf-Inspired K-8 School in South Land Park (designed by Herbert Goodpastor in 1958). Tour guests will receive a collectible guidebook that features addresses and a map, in-depth historic information, related points of interest, and local vintage resources. Guests will also receive complimentary bottled water (courtesy of Raley's); the summer issue of Atomic Ranch magazine (courtesy of Atomic Ranch magazine); and retro candy, toys, and other small treats along the tour route while supplies last.

SacMod is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization founded in 2010 and dedicated to preserving modern art, architecture, and design in the Sacramento region. They do this by conducting home tours, bike tours, walking tours, film screenings, preservation campaigns, publications, and educating the public about modernism.

Neighborhood Notes

National Night Out - Hosts Wanted

National Night Out will be on Tuesday, August 2 this year. National Night Out is a nationwide community-building event that encourages people to get out and meet their neighbors and safety officers. The HPNA is looking for households that would be willing to host something in their front yard for people walking around that evening. For more information or to volunteer, please contact us at hpna95822@gmail.com.

See Something Suspicious? Report It!

The Sacramento Police Department uses its database of calls and reported crimes as a major factor in determining how many officers are assigned to an area. If crimes are going unreported it means that we are not getting the resources our neighborhood needs! If a crime happens, no matter the size, please report it via 911 or the non-emergency line (916) 264-5471. You can also file many types of reports online at www.cityofsacramento.org/Police.

Lawn Watering Schedule

The City of Sacramento has water conservation rules during the spring and summer seasons. For households with an address ending an even number are only allowed to water on Wednesday and/or Sunday. Households with addresses ending in odd numbers are only allowed to water on Tuesday and/or Saturday.

Curbside Leaf Pile Suspended For Season

Sacramento's curbside leaf pile pickup is suspended until October 19, 2015. However, each household is allowed two special pickups annually which can be scheduled by calling 311.
